

Tuscany Etruscan Tuscany: fascinating path in the history.

“Cities rich of art and history, destinations for cultural holidays; nature reserves , wildlife parks and beautiful landscapes framed by medieval villages and holiday farms where going back in time and rediscover the true contact with the earth; long beaches, hotels and entertainment, wellness thermal centers and a gastronomic tradition that offers products of exceptional stature, for a holiday dedicated to wellness and pleasure of the body and the mind. It the perfect place to visit with a classic car a vintage way...”

AREZZO

Arezzo is the ideal place to combine the pleasures of life Tuscany, nature and wine, with a passion for folklore typical of these places, nature and landscape contribute, together, the richness and heritage of a region and the province of Arezzo is undoubtedly an area of great importance and landscape interest. Arezzo has given birth to many characters, among which the well-known Francis Petrararch. It's a very nice city to visit if you hire a car for a tour around Tuscany.

CASTIGLIONE DELLA PESCAIA

The lower part of the village is the newest one, here are concentrated commercial activities, ideal for shopping and to sit at the tables outside the bars and cafes. The part enclosed in the walls of the village is the oldest. Famous seaside resort in the province of Grosseto, surrounded by the beautiful natural environment that is the Tuscan Maremma and wet from a Blue Flag sea. For those who disdain the nightlife there are many local Castiglione, where the nightlife lights up in the summer. It 's a nice place to visit during a tour in the Maremma with a nice convertible classic car.

CHIANTI

In Tuscany, between the beautiful cities of Florence and Siena, there is this beautiful hilly area famous throughout the world for its views and its wines, Chianti. Despite the limited extent the Chianti offers many things to see, such as cities and medieval villages, castles and churches. There are also many things to do, such as wine tasting and local products. Among the events, the famous Palio di Siena, but are to be seen in the numerous wine festivals, markets and musical nights organized in castles. It's the perfect place for a romantic honeymoon and beautiful tours with a classic car.

CORTONA

In the province of Arezzo, on the border between Tuscany and Umbria, stands this town of Etruscan origin, whose territory extends for 342,34 square kilometers in the Val di Chiana.

According to the legend told by Virgil, the mythical Dardano, during a fight which took place in place, there lost his helmet (Corys), hence the name Corito, who later became Cortona.

Cortona is an important art center, famous for being the land of citizens and illustrious artists such as Luca Signorelli.

It's very nice to get if you hire a classic car.

FLORENCE

Florence with its museums, p alaces and churches hosts some of the most important artistic treasures in the world. Among the places d 'art and worship the most popular of the city there are the churches of Santa Maria Novella and Santa Croce then are the real galleries' art, as well as the Laurentian Library is an' exceptional expression of the architectural genius of Michelangelo.

Florence preserves a wealth of paintings by artists such as Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael and Titian, stored in the Uffizi Gallery, Palazzo Pitti, Palatine Gallery and the Gallery of Modern Art.

This city make a honeymoon very special and romantic.

Very nice to visit with a classic car.

FORTE DEI MARMI

Among the most popular seaside resort of the Tyrrhenian Sea. Forte dei Marmi is located around a pier of the sixteenth century to the load of Apuan marble and protected, since 1788, a fort built by Leopold I, visible in the center of Garibaldi Square. Nobles of half of Europe, diplomats, businessmen and captains of industry, artists and famosi. Numerosi also events such as those organized at the Fort, including the renowned Festival of satire and caricature with cartoonists from all over the world, and the Festival Jazz'n Forte.

ELBA ISLAND

Elba Island, with its 224 square kilometers is the third largest Italian island and the largest of the 'Tuscan Archipelago. It is connected by numerous daily ferries and hydrofoils, in one hour of navigation covering the 10 kilometers of sea that separate it from the mainland. Famous for the stay of Napoleon, is now a destination for true fans of the sea, the beaches here are always different, a mountain from which to admire the whole Tuscan Archipelago, imaginative cuisine and simple. But also the opportunity to play sports or engage in bird watching.

Very nice to visit with a classic car.

LUCCA

The first thing to do in Lucca is to rent a bike and climb the walls. From there the view of the medieval roofs is priceless, especially in the soft light of late afternoon. After this impressive first approach you'll be ready to face the wonders that the city reserves. Lucca still preserves ancient commercial activities related to the manufacture and marketing of silk to the typical gastronomic production.

MAREMMA

Discover the Maremma is an experience that is renewed each time, smell the scents of the sea and land throughout the year in the Maremma can offer thanks to the spectacular trails for hiking or mountain biking that bring exciting to appear on natural terraces or unforgettable horseback riding. Away a few miles from the coast, you can reach villages rich in history, often legacy of the ancient Etruscan and Roman, or jewelery of the medieval architectural.

The Maremma is discovered through the richness of flavors that can offer tradition with sea and inland from an old culinary wisdom that goes with the Mediterranean flavors of the oil and the famous DOC wines, not to mention the cheese and sausages. It perfect to visit all these beautiful paleces with a classic car in a vintage way tour.

MONTALCINO

To the south of Siena is a charming medieval village, almost fairy-tale, surrounded by mighty walls and dominated by an ancient castle of authentic architectural perfection. Montalcino, west of Pienza, is a beautiful historic town nestled in the beautiful landscape of the Val d'Orcia Natural Park and renowned throughout the world for extraordinary production of the precious Brunello di Montalcino.

It's a beautiful place for a honeymoon and tour with classic car hire.

MONTECATINI TERME

Montecatini Terme is symbolized by a historical center, where the headquarters of the old castle, and the thermal baths area. It is these last to have given him worldwide fame, thanks to the remarkable curative effect of chloride-sulphate-sodium. The spa facilities of Montecatini are an absolute example of scenery liberty in the open, not to be missed. Thermal parks are the green heart of the city, thousands of botanical specimens of trees in a forest that has few equals in Europe.

MONTEPULCIANO

Perched on top of a hill, to the south of Tuscany, not far from Siena, Montepulciano is a medieval town of rare beauty that is definitely worth a visit! A unique village with elegant Renaissance palaces, ancient churches, beautiful squares and small hidden corners. From Montepulciano, also, you can enjoy a fabulous and boundless view on the Val d'Orcia and Val di Chiana. Montepulciano is a household name thanks to the excellent wine, "Vino Nobile", among the most popular overseas. excellent for a tour by renting a vintage car. Perfect for an honeymoon and holiday.

PISA

Ancient Maritime Republic and is a home to one of the major European universities, Pisa is the most important art cities of Tuscany along with Florence and Siena. Powerful even in the Middle Ages under the rule of the Medici, who made the architectural splendor of Pisa which still survives well. His most significant image is the Piazza dei Miracoli, where in a single glance you can admire the Baptistery, the Cathedral, the Walls of the Monumental Cemetery and the Leaning Tower, an icon of art treasure unique in the world. Very romantic for a honeymoon or a tour in a classic car.

PISTOIA

Ancient Roman and medieval Pistoia has in its artistic heritage palaces from different eras and different beautiful Romanesque and Gothic churches. Pistoia is a city that deserves a visit: Wander the streets and squares of the historic center, the charming Piazza del Duomo particular, is a fascinating blast from the past. If you're ever in town on Wednesday or Saturday the atmosphere will be even more lively thanks to the big market, which is also heir to an ancient tradition. Nice for an holiday renting a classic car.

SAN GIMIGNANO

Ancient Roman and medieval Pistoia has in its artistic heritage palaces from different eras and different beautiful Romanesque and Gothic churches. Pistoia is a city that deserves a visit: Wander the streets and squares of the historic center, the charming Piazza del Duomo particular, is a fascinating blast from the past. If you're ever in town on Wednesday or Saturday the atmosphere will be even more lively thanks to the big market, which is also heir to an ancient tradition. It's nice to visit if you hire a car.

SIENA

Siena is one of the most famous cities in the world, visited by tourists from all over the world, and loved by the Italians: according to the Sole 24 Ore has been confirmed again in 2009 to 7th place for the quality of life.

He has his heart in the center that has retained the charm and medieval architecture with historic buildings, towers, walls, and old sources. Note to the Italian and international tourism for the Palio di Siena horse race, with 17 districts that divide the small town and compete every year in the famous horse race in the Piazza del Campo.

Perfect place for a fairytale honeymoon and for holiday with a vintage car.

VIAREGGIO

Viareggio has achieved worldwide recognition as the most important event of the year, the Carnival, compared in importance to that of Rio. But Viareggio is much more, a real entertainment capital, with its night clubs and the sea that attracts thousands of tourists every summer.

A city of great artistic splendor is characterized by beautiful natural landscapes such as the pinewood Pineta di Ponente , which extends north of the town, and the picturesque stroll along the boulevard of the sea.

It's a perfect place to visit if you hire a classic car.

Volterra is now a city with its characteristic medieval aspect, where you can still enjoy the atmosphere of an old age Municipal Republic, thanks to its isolation, which has limited the industrial and commercial development, preventing the construction mess that often accompanies the development statement. Volterra is also art, the Museum of Sacred Art and the Pinacoteca Civica, while the craft is still alive, in particular with the craft of alabaster. It's a medieval place to reach with a beautiful classic car for a special honeymoon or a perfect holiday.

VOLTERRA

Volterra is today a characteristic medieval town, where you can still enjoy the atmosphere of an old age Municipal Republic, thanks to the relative isolation that has limited the industrial and commercial development, preventing the construction mess that often accompanies the development statement. Volterra is also art, with the museum of sacred art and the Pinacoteca Civica, while the craft is still alive, in particular with the alabaster craft.

It's a suggestive place for a honeymoon and for a wonderful tour in classic car