

UMBRIA

"The charm of Umbria born from the fusion between art and nature, peace and serenity that inspire its evocative places, the presence of masterpieces from the Renaissance and medieval villages set in the hills. Landscapes, immersed in the green winding valleys, and ancient villages make Umbria a region of enchantment. A land of hills, mountains and valleys, which arises in the heart of the boot and extends the middle basin of the Tiber. "

An enchanted region. A land of hills, mountains and valleys..

ASSISI

Assisi is a town in the Umbrian province of Perugia, the medieval remained intact for centuries. It and still protected by strong walls - that climbs on the western spur of Mount Subasio - and is dominated by the Rocca Maggiore and the great Basilica of San Francesco also famous because it is decorated with frescoes by Giotto. The construction of Assisi, its history and its great characters, have had a hand Heaven and Earth. In fact, it is this ring that makes dual Assisi a magical, unforgettable, unique in the world.

After Rome is one is a mystical symbol of Christianity worldwide. It's important to visit this town during a tour hiring a classic car going all around Umbria. Very romantic for a honeymoon too.

CITTA DEL PIEVE

A beautiful medieval village from the urban plan in the shape of an eagle. Città della Pieve, a few kilometers from Perugia, known since the time of the Etruscans. Home to Piero Vannucci, known as Perugino, the country stands on a hillock, near the border with Tuscany. Its distinctive features are the prevailing color of cooked, for the manufacture of which it was formerly known, and processing of Christmas cribs.

Città del Pieve and often the background of many Italian and international films.

It's a interesting town to reach renting a car during a tour.

FOLIGNO

Foligno, from its origins natural crossroads for centuries has welcomed crowds of travelers, merchants and pilgrims, becoming a vibrant place of commerce. A wealth of historic churches and buildings for its location allows you to easily reach all the most beautiful places in Umbria, and offers a warm welcome. One of the most characteristic is the Giostra della Quintana, equestrian event with beautiful vintage clothes, where you can relive the 1400s, with competitions and food festivals exquisitely vintage, which catapult the visitor in an atmosphere of ancient times.

Foligno has a romantic atmosphere suggestive for a romantic honeymoon and a beautiful tour in classic car for its beautiful landscape.

ORVIETO

Orvieto is a beautiful Umbrian town of about 21,000 inhabitants leaves the visitor who sees it for the first time really in awe. Orvieto is also home to prestigious museums such as the Museo dell'Opera del Duomo and the Museum of Modern Art. Orvieto is a surprising and unexpected discovery, a town bristling on a cliff of tufa cliffs, a concentration of artistic and natural beauty. The location, the extraordinary beauty and quality of the good life make this illustrious city of Umbria, sandwiched between Lazio and Tuscany, a great place to spend a relaxing holiday full of pleasure and relaxation. The manifestations of Perugia are of international importance, such as Chocolate, an event dedicated to the culture of chocolate with 9 days of outdoor pastries, and Umbria jazz, one of Europe's most famous jazz events

PERUGIA

Perugia is an ancient city of rare beauty, quite rightly a tourist destination polite and unconventional. In the capital of Umbria there are so many things to see. Among the many majestic Piazza and the Palazzo dei Priori, the National Gallery of Umbria, the Collegio del Cambio and that of Merchandise. Beautiful nature near, many museums and events throughout the year. A very important event is the Eurochocolate which takes place every year in this beautiful city. It's interesting to visit it during a beautiful holiday or honeymoon in classic car.

SPOLETO

The city of Spoleto and its territory have a stratification of evidence of millennial evolution of the nature of human society and the relationship between this and the environment, in a word of Culture.

If you infatuated "tourists" exceptional as Michelangelo, Vasari wrote that "I have had pleasure in the mountains of Spoleto to visit those hermits so that I am less than half returned to Rome because I really do not find peace except in the woods" . Many important music festivals and artistic present in this city every year.

It's a very wonderful place for romantic honeymoon and interesting tour in classic car.

GUBBIO

Gubbio is a well-preserved medieval hill town in the Umbria region of central Italy. Gubbio's compact center has a good selection of medieval, Gothic, and Renaissance monuments built of gray limestone and has great views over the beautiful countryside. Just outside the town is a Roman amphitheater. It's famous for its "Patente dei Pazzi" (Fools License).

Gubbio is very romantic for honeymoon and every kind of holiday.